Translations

German<>English

All texts are worked on by two translators; one whose first language is German and the other whose first language is English. Thus an optimal transfer from the source to the target language is guaranteed.

Prompt Reliable Exact

*If desired we will develop or expand your „English<>German Company Glossary“.

-) You contact us and send your text (most cost efficient in an editable format, e.g. "Word") or your "SDL Studio Package"
-) What is your desired delivery time?
-) Are we supposed to use an existing English<>German glossary?*
-) What do you need this translation for? (Is it going to be published? If yes, how and where)
-) You receive your offer
-) You confirm the offer
-) You receive your translation at the agreed upon date.

Mission

Our team work ensures that our translations are accurate yet creative, and perhaps most importantly, they do not sound like translations.
"In a smith-bauer translation nothing is ever lost."
